LEEDS CASTLE, NEAR MAIDSTO

June 15

We shot here yesterday. In 1650 it was the home of Lord Fairfax. It was from this area Andrew Job sailed to America. Walking very long hours & am very tired.

FOR CORRESPONDENCE

Ancester hunting in Scotland is wonderful fun! Spent last week at "Keith Hall" with the Earl + Countess of Kintore - who despite their titles + living in a 75-room castle, are just delightful people. (like us!)

General How To

Land Jurisdiction and Ownership in the Public Domain

Claim to land title in the public land states was based upon several factors, including cession of lands from the colonies, conquest, outright purchase, and treaty--principally with England and France, but also with the Indians (fig. 79).

The following two tables show the chronological sequence of cession of western lands[1] as well as historical and statistical data on all states and territories in 1880[2]:

CESSIONS OF WESTERN LANDS

1778, Sept. 19.	Congressional committee proposal that States cede lands.
1778, Dec. 15.	Maryland proposal that States cede their lands.
1779, May 12.	Maryland proposal presented to Congress.
1780, Feb. 19.	New York act, ceding her lands.
1780, Mar. 7.	New York cession laid before Congress.
1780, Sept. 6.	Congress recommends that all States cede their lands.
1780, Oct.	Connecticut resolution ceding lands.
1781, Jan. 2.	Virginia resolution ceding lands.
1781, Mar. 1.	New York cession presented to Congress.
1781, June 27.	Congressional committee reports New York, Virginia, and Connecticut cessions inexpediant in form.
1782, Apr. 18 to 1782, Sept. 26.	Congressional discussion of State cessions.
1782, Oct. 29.	New York cession accepted by Congress.
1783, Jan. 30. to 1782, Sept. 13.	Congressional discussion of Virginia and other cessions.
1783, Oct. 20.	Beginning of Virginia session at which lands are ceded.
1784, Mar. 1.	Virginia cession accepted by Congress.
1784, June 2.	North Carolina act of cession.
1784, Nov. 13.	Massachusetts cession accepted by Congress.
1785, May 20.	Congress asked North Carolina to rescind her November act and be as liberal as in June.

Dear Mr. Bates:

Thanks for your reply. Williams Creek Baptist Church is in Warren County. Mercer University is the depository for our historical materials, and we Fleming Bates as being Primitive. You will need more information than the Williams Creek minutes has information which gives some possible family n from W. Creek. This church could have very well been Primitive. I am tryi their minutes and do not find his name. It will turn up somewhere. I thir Thank you for your reply. Please keep in touch.

Cordially,

Waldo P. Harris III

According to the 1991 book "The Bates Family of Old Virginia and Beyond"

This indicates that he was brother of David Bates that went to Wilkes Co. GA. Another bro. James in Savannah Will

In the early months of 1623, John Bates, a bright, ambitious, young man living in or near the city of Canterbury, in County Kent, in the south of England read the ads frequently placed by the Virginia Company telling of the many excellent opportunities in the New World. As a result, John signed a contract to work as an indentured servant to Mr. Abraham Peircy in exchange for his passage to Virginia. Late in 1623, the Southampton a 180 ton ship along with the Great Hopewell and the Returne were anchored in the Jamestown harbor, bringing provisions and 57 new settlers from England, to help re-build the shattered Virginia Colony. With John Bates landing in 1623 it made the BATES FAMILY OF OLD VIRGINIA a solid "FFV" First Family of Virginia.

Editing is not complete here - text to be rewritten

This was the year, 1624, that Yeardley sold this plantation as well as his holding across the James at Weyanoke to Captain Abraham Piercy, one of the leading merchants in the Colony. In 1624, the year of the sale, a population of sixty-three (including eleven negroes) had been listed for Flowerdieu Hundred with another eighteen having died in the previous twelve months.

On 15 Sept, 1655 John Bates patented 50 acres of land lying "at the Middle Plantation butting easterly upon the Old paile (palisado)," which he had purchased from George Lake."

Stanard, M. N., Colonial Virginia - Its People and Customs. page 47 - In the 1624 Census, John Bates, was listed as a servant of Abraham Peirsey, but in the 1626 Census, John Bates was listed as a merchant.

Some Notes About Captain Abraham Piersey

June 7, 1997, I received from Don Johnston at DonjohnSR@aol.com the following information: While I can not verify the accuracy, I show that Capt. Abraham Piersey was born in 1585 at Maidstone, Kent, England. He had a brother John and a sister whose married name was Judith Smythson. Abraham came to Virginia in 1616 on the "Susan". He returned to England and then returned to Virginia in 1617 on the "George". I show that he married Elizabeth Draper born Dec. 7, 1583 and died Aug. 17, 1625. She was the daughter of Clement Draper and Elizabeth Garton. I show that Abraham and Elizabeth had 4 children -- Elizabeth born in 1610 who married Richard Stephens and then John Harvey, Abraham who died young, John who died young, and Mary (my wife descends thru her) who was born in 1613 and died before 18 Dec 1676. She married Thomas Hill first and then Thomas Bushrod.

John Frederick Dorman is an authoritative source for the early Bates. ---- Booster No. 131 dated September 1993 reviewed the above book. On page 3 of the review, it was said.... "The book did not list a daughter named Susanna in his will, but perhaps he (John Bates) was not pleased with her marriage to Stephen Tarleton. Tarleton lived a very coloful life to the detriment of his reputation before marriage (to whoever) per page 424 of book "Tidewater Virginia Families" by Virginia Lee Hutcheson.

The York County records of 4 May 1660 contains this entry: "John Bates, of Middleton Parish in this county, and ancient inhabitant of the colony, being sixty two years of age and thereby disabled to work as formerly is discharged from ye cointrey and county leaves by this court for the future."

Welcome to The Bates Family of Old Virginia.

For starters, think you should check-out Bates Homepage being constructed by one of the Directors of The Bates Family of Old VA:
http://www.geocities.com/CollegePark/Union/6293

The Bates Homepage has several features that will interest you, like:

1. Index of Bates books, and how to obtain them on-loan from the Bates Lending Library.
2. Copy of wills from the immigrant John Bates (1598-1666) down to your John Bates, who was the father of David Bates, who in turn, was father of Anderson Bates
3. Narrative covering immigrant John Bates (1598-1666)

We have published 153 editions of The Bates Booster Newsletter. I will mail you Index to the first 102 editions. The Index is annotated as to which articles which we deem of interest to John Bates (1598-1666) descendants, which we categorize as the "JY" Branch of Bates.
The Index will provide nstructions as to how to order back issues of The Bates Booster. However, you may choose the following option.

Instead of ordering back issues, you may well choose to obtain bound books of past issues. Each bound book contains past issues for a five year period. This will be explained in the Bates Homepage ...ting of The Bates Lending Library. So, when you obtain the bound book of past issues on loan, you can photocopy whatever interests you at no charge.

I will be mailing you the three editions of the Bates newsletter which have been published in 1997, Jan - Mar - and May 1997 editions.

The Bates Family of Old Virginia held it's 26th annual reunion on 20 and 21 June 1997 at Holiday Inn - Monticello in Charlottesville, VA.

Members attended from ten states, from Alabama, California, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma Tennessee, and Virginia. Attendees were descendants of John Bates (1598-1666) of York CoVA; Robert Bates Sr. (1745 d p 1850) of Albemarle CoVA and Williamson CoTN; Reuben Bates (1730/1 d p 1800) of Louisa CoVA, and William Bates (c1646-c1684) of Essex CoVA.

Jay Worral, Jr. of Charlottesville, VA was the featured speaker. Mr. Worral is an authority on Virginia Quakers. He is author of the highly acclaimed book " The Friendly Virginians - America's First Quakers," published in 1994. His book includes coverage of the Bates Quakers, beginning with third generation brothers John and James Bates who were converted in 1698. From the beginning, the book states that "Bateses were a power among Virginia Friends (Quakers) for four generations thereafter."

Copy of Mr. Worral's speech will appear within the July 1997 edition of The Bates Booster newsletter published by The Bates Family of Old Virginia.

The Treasurer reported that The Bates Family of Old Virginia has 264 paid up members not counting libraries and others that receive complementary copies of The Bates Booster newsletters.

The Bates Family of Old Virginia covers the Southern Bates. We are familiar with Anderson Bates, son of David Bates & Drucilla Echols of Halifax CoVA before removing to Wilkes Co. Geo.

Didn't know about Anderson's four wives. Reason to believe his full name was John Anderson Bates and he first married an Evans. In 1819, Anderson Bates married Jane Combs in Wilkes Co., GA,

The Bates Booster newsletter for May 1997 had three pages covering Georgia Bates

1. Catalog of Bates Head of Household by county from 1805 thru 1850.
2. Early Bates Marriages by George county
3. Lest We Forget - List of Bates who served with Georgia Confederate troops.

Membership in the Bates Family of Old Virginia is $10 for the first year and $5. per year thereafter. If interestedl, make check to The Bates Family of Old Virginia and mail to the following:

Debbie, I just saw your post re the Bates Association. The meeting in April was a small regional meeting of the national Bates Association.We will have our biennial reunion in Salt Lake City this July. We publish The Bates Bulletin twice a year. EMail me with your name and address if you are interested in joining . We'd like to have you. We have members from many different Bates lines and from different parts of the country as well as some overseas members. Membership is $20 a year..Mary Jean Bates Evans, President, The Bates Association

Sorry, e-mailed full response to the "BAM" Surname Bulletin Board. In brief, Anderson Bates was son of David and can be traced back to the immigrant John (1598-1666) who arrived in Virginia in the winter of 1623/4 aboard the Southampton.

Have you looked in Wilkes CoGA.
There was a David Bates d1810 & wife Drusilla Echols moved to Wilkes CoGA from Pittsylvania CoVA. They married 2 Feb 1782.
They had sons Anderson Bates and Randolph Bates.
David Bates served in the General Assemby of Virginia 1796-1798 and thought to have served in the Georgia Legislature from Wilkes CoVa.
If this is your Bates, they can be traced back to the immigrant John Bates (1598-1666) who arrived in Virginia in the winter of 1623/4 aboard the Southampton.
Would like to know more about descendants of Anderson Bates and his activities.

This is a transcription of the Bates Family Bible, now in possession of the Library of Virginia. Some pieces of pages are missing, and some information is no longer legible. These are noted as (M)=missing section, (I)=illegible word or phrase. I have also attempted to conform to the original arrangement, punctuation and spelling. On all pages but number seven, the dating notation is that used by the Quaker faith. For more information on Quakers, try The Quaker Corner

Dear Mr. Wills:

What a pleasant surprise to receive the spread sheet of your Bates information. I was astounded when I opened it.

When I had laid it all out and saw how you had arranged the families, it was very clear. Beautiful job, you should be very proud.

Since Houston is at last receiving some much needed rain, this is a perfect day to study and compile some families from your records. Just wish they had given you places of events, but then we can't have it made too easy for us, can we??

Thank you again for the time and effort you took to print out this record for me.

Sincerely,

Vivian H. Jordan

P.S. I'm adding this caveat to the above. Please straighten me out for upon entering the info (using your sheet as well as the computer Bates Web Page print outs) I'm having trouble with all these 'Johns'!! My line, I'm told is John, Emigrant; George,1625; John 1655(you have marked 'III') The computer says that John 'II' b 1655...(your printout, if I'm reading correctly shows, John 'II' b 1627 and a sibling of George,1625).
Is there an ongoing research with this discrepancy or where did I get off??
Sorry to be such a bother.

"The Immigrant"

[1598 - 1666]

Every schoolboy and schoolgirl knows that the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers at the Eastern Mediterranean formed the cradle of human civilization. In the New World, it was the Powhatan River which fulfilled that function for America. Beginning at Jamestown in 1607, English settlers colonized the Powhatan River and renamed it James for the first Stuart King, James 1, son of Mary, Queen of Scots^2.

Imagine leaving your home and country with only those few possessions you can carry in a small chest. Imagine boarding a vessel powered only by the wind to cross the vast Atlantic Ocean. Imagine months at sea with no privacy, very little fresh food, heat or comfort of any kind, all in order to reach a land said to be inhabited by fierce native tribes where previous attempts at settlement have ended in disaster. What fool would undertake such a journey? But also imagine, dreaming of a fertile and bounteous land. Imagine dreaming of being free — from debt, from lack of opportunity, from city squalor, from whatever mistakes or burdens were part of your past. Imagine holding in your mind simultaneously the alternating hopes and forebodings of such an enterprise and you can begin to fathom the experience of the Peirsey's Hundred settlers. In November of 1622, the Southampton sailed from London for the new American Colony of Virginia. The -?-?-?-?-?-?- They traveled up North America's eastern coast. Some four months and 6,000 miles after their departure from England they found a swampy wilderness on the banks of the James River and pronounced it fit for settlement. Thus commenced the long and fascinating story of our country's beginnings.The first few years were difficult ones for the settlers of Peirsey's Hundred. The climate proved hot and humid, the land marshy and mosquito-ridden. Several of the colonists' attempts at industry, including glass-making, failed to create a solid economy. The winter of 1622-1623, was especially terrible for the colony. Ultimately, tobacco cultivation succeeded where all else had failed, ensuring survival. More and more settlers arrived, attracted by cash crop opportunities as well as the desire for a better life than that afforded by the rigidly hierarchical societies of Europe. Soon the Virginia Colony was flourishing; plantation society took firm root in its rich, sandy soils and lush woodlands.Archeological discoveries, scholarly research and a number of organizations' determined dedication to understanding our nation's past have combined to produce the Jamestown visitors experience today.

These early colonists anticipated a sort of New World version of English village life, and most of them came from distinctly non-agrarian backgrounds. Yet they ended up building an economy, agriculture and lifestyle unique in place and time, a system which ruled the South for a rough 100 years from the mid 18th-century to the Civil War. Today James River Plantations are the best examples of what remains of that incredible era. Each is a glorious, living monument to an elegant age, irretrievably lost.

In the early months of 1623, John Bates, a bright, ambitious, young man living in Kent County, England had read about the many excellent opportunities in the New World. As a result, he answered an ad in the local newspaper placed by Abraham Peirsey owner of Peirsey's Hundred (later became Flowerdew Hundred)in the Virginia colony. After contacting Mr. Peirsey, John signed on as an indentured servant in the new colony of Virginia. In October of 1623, John Isaac sailed to Virginia aboard the Southampton, an 180 Ton vessel carrying 30 passengers and tools, weapons and provisions for the colonies. A list of some of the passengers can be found below. --- In 1623, John was listed in the muster of Abraham Peirsey at Peirsey's Hundred, 1624, as age 24.

Following are excerpts from the text of a speech on QUAKER BATESES OF VIRGINIAby Jay Worral, Jr., author of The Friendly Virginian.

On the wings of our imaginations let us leave here for awhile and travel down the James River from Lynchburg. It is December of 1623, the great trees have shed their leaves, and there is a sprinkle of snow on the ground. Down past the Falls, where the city of Richmond now stands, we begin to see small clearings on both side of the river. Each clearing has a clap boarded, unpainted high peaked little house, a few outbuildings and a cornfield or a garden patch hacked out of the woods. Notice that quite a few of the houses look as they've been burned down, partly charred or completely burned, no sign of life around them.

Virginia in 1623 is only just recovering from a terrible tragedy. The first settlers came from England to Virginia in 1607. In the spring of 1622, fifteen years later, Virginia's Indians made an all out effort to drive the English out, massacring more than 350 settlers during one terrible March night, driving away their cattle and pigs and burning their buildings. After the attack, there was hunger and disease, small pox set in. And by the winter of 1623 only about 1,100 English settlers were left out of 7,500 who had come to live in Virginia - only I out of 7 were alive.

Down the river at Jamestown, the Colony's capital, it's December of 1623, and there in the river there are three ships anchored below the town - The Great Hopewell, the Southampton and the Returne. These ships have brought provisions and 57 new settlers from England, to help re-build the shattered Virginia Colony.

One of those 57 new settlers is our grandfather JOHN BATES, a 25 years old young man who had come all the way from Kent County, England to seek his fame and fortune, and take his chances in the new world. John's landing in 1623 makes the BATES FAMILY OF OLD VIRGINIA a solid "FFV" First Family of Virginia.

JOHN BATES got to Virginia at a bad time. In the winters of 1622 and 1623 many of the newcomers couldn't find any shelter from the cold - "neither guest house, inn or any ye like place to shroud themselves in at their arrival," some observer wrote, "so that many of them..... are not only seen dying under hedges and in the woods, but being dead lie .... many days unburied."

JOHN BATES, was a survivor. He wasn't a well-to-do man, his passage to America was paid by Abraham Peirsey in exchange for his agreement to serve as Piersey servant for a term of years probably 4 years. John was luck because Abraham Peirsey was one of the wealthiest men in Virginia

Some Bates family members believe that John was in fact a relative of Abraham Peirsey's wife. It is said that John was brought to Virginia at the insistence of the Peirsey's wife. Peirsey's Hundred was originally called the Flowerdew Hundred because he financed the group.

On 15 Sept, 1655 John Bates patented 50 acres of land lying "at the Middle Plantation butting easeterly upon the Old paile (palisado)," which he had purchased from George Lake."

Stanard, M. N., Colonial Virginia - Its People and Customs. page 47 - In the 1624 Census, John Bates, was listed as a servant of Abraham Peirsey, but in the 1626 Census, John Bates was listed as a merchant.

June 7, 1997, I received from Don Johnston at DonjohnSR@aol.com the following information: While I can not verify the accuracy, I show that Capt. Abraham Piersey was born in 1585 at Maidstone, Kent, England. He had a brother John and a sister whose married name was Judith Smythson. Abraham came to Virginia in 1616 on the "Susan". He returned to England and then returned to Virginia in 1617 on the "George". I show that he married Elizabeth Draper born Dec. 7, l583 and died Aug. l7, 1625. She was the daughter of Clement Draper and Elizabeth Garton. I show that Abraham and Elizabeth had 4 children -- Elizabeth born in 1610 who married Richard Stephens and then John Harvey, Abraham who died young, John who died young, and Mary (my wife descends thru her) who was born in 1613 and died before 18 Dec 1676. She married Thomas Hill first and then Thomas Bushrod.

PATENT OF FLOWERDEW HUNDRED TO MRS. ELIZABETH [PIERSEY] STEVENS (1636)

To all to whom these presents shall come. I, Captain John West,Esqr., Governor, etc., send greetings, etc. Now know ye that I,the said Captain John West, Esqr., do with the consent of the Council of State accordingly give and grant unto Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens one thousand acres of land situate, lying and being in the County of Charles City, known and called by the name of Flowerdew Hundred, being bounding from the creek called Flowerdew Hundred creek down the main river and into the Spring Swamp, being the uppermost bounds upwards upon the said river and northwest into the woods and lying along and upon the south side of the main river over against Weyanoake, the said one thousand acres being due unto her the said Elizabeth Stevens, in right of descent from her Father, Abraham Pearsey, late of Virginia, and is as part of her share and portion of Inheritance as Coheir from her said Father, which Land was also due unto the said Abraham Pearsey by purchase from Sr. George Yardley, Kt., late Governor of Virginia as by a Deed of bargain and sale under the hand and seal of the said Sr. George Yardley bearing date the 5th day of October, 1624, may and doth more at large appear. To have and to hold the said one thousand acres of Land, etc, dated the 15th of Oct. Anno. Domini, 1636.

From "Adventurers of Purse and Person": Woodson Family of Henrico County, Virginia -- JOHN WOODSON and his wife Sarah came to Virginia in 1619, in the George and settled at Flowerdew Hundred, known by Feb. 1624/5, when the muster was taken, as Peirsey's Hundred. They hadbeen fellow passengers on the ship with Governor Sir George Yeardley and his wife Temperance Flowerdew, Lady Yeardley. No further documentary evidence has been found relating to them until 1660. a family account written about 1785 by Charles Woodson (1711-1795), son of Tarleton Woodson, however, survives and supplies details which link the first generations of Woodsons and Robert Woodson, John Woodson, Sr., and John Woodson, Jr." who were among the tithables at Curles, 1679.

Flowerdew Hundred: founded in 1618 is located off Route 10, five miles east of the Benjamin Harrison Bridge. Its history has been uncovered through archaeological excavation. Open Tuesday-Sunday, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. April through November and during winter by appointment.

 I am sure as time passes, we will find out more and more **

The third edition of the book "Adventurers of Purse and Person Virginia1607-1624/5" edited by John Frederick Dorman is an authoritative source for the early Bates. ---- Booster No. 131 dated September 1993 reviewed the above book. On page 3 of the review, it was said.... "The book did not list a daughter named Susanna in his will, but perhaps he (John Bates) was not pleased with her marriage to Stephen Tarleton. Tarleton lived a very coloful life to the detriment of his reputation before marriage (to whoever) per page 424 of book "Tidewater Virginia Families" by Virginia Lee Hutcheson.

The York County records of 4 May 1660 contains this entry: "John Bates, of Middleton Parish in this county, and ancient inhabitant of the colony, being sixty two years of age and thereby disabled to work as formerly is discharged from ye cointrey and county leaves by this court for the future."

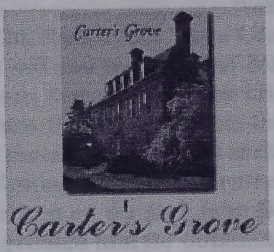
Research: Warwick - York Monthly Meeting Records: In 1698 the Quaker preacher Thomas Story recorded: "At Skimino in York County, at the house of John Bates, we had a meeting appointed, where no meeting had ever been before, and though he was not a Friend by profession, yet very forward to provide seats, saying his house, he feared, would be too small for the meeting, but he had room sufficient in his heart." and at that same meeting "both John Bates and his wife were convinced of the truth and from that time professed the same with us."

This John Bates seems to have been a man of substance. In his will he leaves more than 2500 acres of land to his heirs, land in New Kent County and in the county of James City as well as York County, two mills, more than 20 slaves and 540 lbs of silver which he left to his daughters, in addition to money in England and elsewhere. He left a home to his mother, Mary Brewer. Evidently his second wife had died before 25 Dec 1719, when he signed his will, as she was not mentioned in it.

John Bates has to be regarded as a prominent planter and plantation owner in this period of history. His holdings were vast in a relatively good part of Virginia. Although he inhereted a portion of his father's land, he enlarged it greatly. Having money invested in England usuall denotes a traveler or perhaps a shipper. - pg 101 - " In 1698, at Skimino, Thomas Story convinced John Bates and his family "of the truth" and the BATESES were a power among Virginia Friends for four generations thereafter."



The plantation house might have looked something like this

The slave quarters probably looked something like this

John Bates V - Will - 8th Generation PRESENTED IN HALIFAX COUNTY, VIRGINIA COURT NOVEMBER OF 1777 WILL OF JOHN BATES

Stuff that need to line up right

I John Bates, of the County of Halifax, and Parish of Antrim. being weak of body but of sound memory, knowing that is appointed for all men once to die have thought proper to make this my last will and test- ament in manner and form following, that is to say Vixt

I desire my wife Chloe Bates may have peaceable possession of the land whereon I now live, about sixty six acres. Also thirty foare acres of the Mill Tract, in the whole one hundred acres, as long as the said Chloe Bates shall live, after which my desire is that it shall belong to my son David Bates. My desire further is that John Moore shall peaceably enjoy one hundred and sixteen acres of land being the sourplus of the land bought of said Moore called the Mill Tract, after whose death it shall belong to Armistead Moore. As to my personal Estate my desire is that it be equally divided after the death of my wife, among my children, namely David, Elizabeth, John, James, Fleming, Matthew and Susannah. I do constitute this my last will and testament appointing my wife Chloe Bates Executrix and my son David Bates Executor to which I set my hand and affixed my seall.

John Bates (seal) Before Fleming Bates, Jr George Ridley Elisabeth Wall NB I desire that the land on Bradley's Creek be sold and the money arising thereby be devised between my children before mentioned in my will above written equally John Bates (seal) At a court held in halifax County the 20th day of November 1777 this last will and testament of John Bates deceased was exhibited in court by Chloe Bates widow and relict of said John the Executrix herein named and there was proved by the oaths of two of the subscribing witnesses hereto, and ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of the said Executrix, who made oath hereto according to law right was granted her for obtaining Probate hereof in due form, she giving security, and she together with James Bates and William Mayes, Sr. her security entered into and acknowledged fond for the same. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Boswell Jordan announce the marriage of their daughter

to

Mr. James William Tygret

on Friday, the thirtieth of May nineteen hundred and seventy-five

Houston, Texas

Dear Vivian,

First, of course, sincere apology for such a long delay in answering your welcome letter. The photos you sent of Buck, Maurice, and Tilda are treasured. They were at Pensacola. I met Maurice, briefly — Tilda not at all, when my father, sister, niece and I visited Buck in Pensacola in summer of 1941.

My heart was broken when Buck died in April of 2002. We were the last two in my very close family and he was my best friend, (and protector!). His last years were spent taking care of his wife. They had no children. She has the dreaded Alzheimers — still living with no clue of anything, of course. He fell lifting her from a fall and damaged vertabrae in his back. Horrible pain for a couple of years and chose to go in the nursing home with her. Many complications followed. He had a great and big, kind heart, and, at times, a great big stubborn streak! He never forgot your brother and would mention some incidents of their flying days. As I remember, Maurice was flying in an Army plane at Midway when shot down in that fierce battle. The Navy had lost most of their patrol bombers on Dec. 7. Don't know if you knew it, but those two had their future all planned! They chose the large aircraft and when they did their Navy time were going to fly transport planes all over the world! The best laid plans of mice and men! They also requested Pearl Harbor duty — sounded great before Dec. 7! They arrived there 2-3 weeks prior to Dec. 7. Buck loved flying — from the time my father let him ride with the cotton dusting plane. I'm sure Maurice must have helped with the navigation courses — since Louisiana schools had limited math. courses! I wish I could remember some of the "good" tales. I lost a lot of correspondence I had left — hurricane, South Louisiana.

You are so wise to track family. I think it is most interesting. A niece has done a lot of ours in this computer age. Both sides of our family were here before the Rev. War.

Now, forgive this very long letter. I have been a "nurse" for a while. My husband had colon surgery early June — then a follow up infection. He's still limited in "action", but doing well. No cancer — thank our gracious Lord.

Thank you, again, so very much. Buck was so happy when he heard from you, too. That gesture was so appreciated.

Hope all is well with you and yours. I have two daughters. The eldest has one son - 18, and the youngest, age 40 has a year old son — oh, my.

If time permits — please keep in touch!

Ever
Jon

Dear Mildred,

I'm sorry about the forms with no letter. We are tracing the Boswell family. I am a descendant of Samuel Boswell, born? where?, was in Overton Co., Tenn. 1812, maybe sooner, died 1876 Jefferson Co., Ill., had 14 children. I also have a 3'x4' chart of Boswells from the year 1061 Scottland. This was compiled in 1900 by a Boswell in Leeds, England. It's wonderful. We have found descendants of several of Samuels children but still have a long way to go and can't get past Overton Co. I would love to have a copy of all the Boswells you have if possible. Londa said you had done extensive work on them. Any help at all would be great. If I can help you please don't hesitate to ask.

Done	Priority	To Do	Category	Date
☐		#0935143 film in SLC is Edwin Hill's collection. This needs to be checked again for dates that do not jibe with records of a pension by widow
☑		1791 m date for Nancy Hill Sample to John. Need to check census for Nancy and John in NY. She b 1773, d 1861
☑		Check census 1840-50 for Stephen M.Hill, he was in Port Jackson w/wife Jane when dau was born in 1849. Look for Woodards!
☑		Find Directories for Montgomery Co., NY
☑		Find Port Jackson, NY research aids. F.A. Hill was there 1843 — County?
☑		From Soda?, IL went to Harvard Junction in 1861. (Maybe this is when he was a 'Yankee Recruiting Sergeant??) Then to Little Rock, AR in 1885
☑		Locate 'Poltny, VT'..F.A.Hill went to school here. — Rutland Co.		1838
☑		Need to check on Tavern owners in NY as Sarah Hill, mother of Nicholas may have run one with husband.
☐		Need to check the AZ census records for Montrose French, husband of my Aunt Sophia Geer Hill
☐		Need to checkon Henry Hill's family. Wid. pension shows a 1st wife with 3 ch b before Henry! which was 1768.
☑		Need to continue film #1339, Prot. Dutch Chu now Ref. Dut Chu of Fonda, NY . Start on page 177 'Transferring of Seats'.
☐		Research the SANFORD family in NY, Montg. for the family of George. Since he m Catherine Stanton, sis to Sophia who m my Enders, maybe Charlotte can be found in the SANFORD household. Must check this out!!
☑		Stephen M. Hill left Port Jackson,NY by 1859 for his dau Helen d then in Stark Co., IL
☑		Stephen M. Hill was close to F.A. Hill for he named his 5th ch after Sophia Stanton Hill, wife/F.A. Hill.
☑		Where is Hopewell, NY? Are Stanton's here or is F. A. Asbury here? Is County Poor House located here? — Dutchess Co, NY

He married ANNA LORD 1637 in Hartford, CT, daughter of THOMAS LORD and DOROTHY BIRD. She was born 1621, and died 1689 in Anguilla, Stonington, CT.

Notes for THOMAS STANTON:
Thomas Stanton, who became distinguished among the first planters of Stonington, CT was in early manhood in Eng designed and educated for a cadet, but not liking the profession of arms, and taking a deep interest in the religious principles of the migrating Puritans, he left his native land, embarking on board of the good ship "Bonaventure" in 1635, and landed in Virginia, but left there almost immediately for Boston, mingling with the natives on the way, and rapidly acquired a knowledge of their language and customs. On arrival in Boston he was recognized by Winthrop and his associates as a valuable man, worthy of the most unlimited confidence, for the very next year he was select by the Boston authorities to accompany Mr. Fenwick and Hugh Peters, as interpreter on a mission to Saybrook, CT to hold a conference with the Pequot Indians relative to the murder of Capt. Stone and Newton. After the close of the conference Mr. Stanton went up to Hartford, and there fixed his permanent abode in 1637. Mr. Stanton's accurate knowledge of the language and character of the Indians soon gave him prominence in the new settlements of Ct. for the very first year that he came to Hartford, the General Court gave him ten pounds for the service he had already done for the country, and declared that he should be a public officer, to attend the court upon all occasions, either general or particular, at the meetings of the magistrates, to interpret between them and the Indians, at a salary of ten pounds a year. Mr. Stanton did not always agree with the policy of Capt. Mason and the court relative to the treatment of the Indians, and drew upon himself their displeasure; but being a man accustomed to speak his own mind and act upon his own convictions, maintained his position, though they discontinued his salary for two years, alleging long absence as the cause, and appointed Mr. Gilbert to take his place. But in 1648 they restored him to the place with it's compensations. He became the intimate and especial friend of Gov. Winthrop of CT, acting as his interpreter in all of his intercourse with the Indians. It was while thus employed, in the interview with Ninigret in the Narragansett country that Mr. Stanton became acquainted with the Pawcatuck Valley, and selected it for his future residence. He was the first white man who joined Mr. William Chesebrough in his new settlement. He petitioned the General Court of CT for liberty to erect a trading house there, which was granted in February, 1650. In the spring following he came to Pawcatuck and erected his trading house on the west bank of Pawcatuck river, in Stonington, in 1651, near a place ever since known as Pawcatuck Rock, for the reason that the deep water channel in the river touched the east side of said rock where vessels trading with him could easily receive and discharge their cargoes without any expense for the erection of a wharf. Mr. Stanton did not remove his family to Pawcatuck in Stonington until 1657, where he had previously erected a dwelling house. The precise site of this house cannot now be ascertained, but no doubt it was conveniently near his trading house on Pawcatuck River. The object of building the trading house was to open trade with the coasting vessels which were cruising along our New England shores, gathering furs from the Indians and purchasing the surplus products of the planters, and selling the same either in Boston or in the West Indies. After the articles of confederation between the New England colonies had been established in 1643, among all of the distinguished interpreters of New England, Mr. Stanton was selected as Interpreter General, to be consulted and relied upon in all emergencies. In this capacity and in their behalf he acted as interpreter, especially between the ministers employed by the Commissioners of the United Colonies, acting as agents of the London Missionary Society, and the Indians, to whom they preached. He also aided the Rev. Aabraham Pierson in the translation of his catechism into the India tongue, ceertifying to same in his official capacity. After Mr. Stanton became an inhabitant of Pawcatuck in Stonington he took an active part in town affairs, he became prominent, and was elected to almost every position of public trust in the new settlement. in 1658, when Pawcatuck was included in the town of Southertown, under the jurisdiction of MA. he was appointed selectman and magistrate. After Pawcatuck was set off to the CT. Colony by the charter of 1662, Mr. Stanton was appointed magistrate and commissioner, and reappointed every year up to the time of his death. He was elected deputy or representative to the General Court of CT in 1666 and reelected every year up to 1675. When courts were first established in New London County in 1666, Major Mason, Thomas Stanton, and lt. Pratt of Caybrook, were appointed judges. Thus it appear that Mr. Stanton took a prominent part in town, county and State affairs from 1636, when he acted as interpreter at Saybrook, until near the close of his life. His name is connected with the leading measures of the colony, and with almost every Indian transaction on record. In 1670, Uncas, the Mohegan sachem, went from Mohegan to Pawcatuck for Mr. Stanton to write his will, taking with him a train of his noblest warriors to witness the same, giving to the occasion all the pomp and pagentry of savage royalty. He died 2 Dec 1677 aged 68 yrs. His will was probated in June, 1678. His widow survived him about eleven years making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Noyes, at Anguilla in Stongington, CT. He married Anna, daughterof Thomas and Dorothy Lord in 1637.

3. JOHN[2] STANTON (THOMAS[1]) (Source: History of the Town of Stonington, CT by Richard Anson Wheeler, 1966, pg 582, Write up of Capt. John Stanton and his Military Service in King Philip's War.) was born 1641, and died 03 Oct 1713. He married HANNAH THOMPSON 1664, daughter of ANTHONY THOMPSON and ????. She was born 08 Jun 1645.

Notes for JOHN STANTON:
Capt. John Stanton m Hannah Thompson in 1664, sister of Rev. William Thompson, Jr. of Braintree, MA. In 1654 he and John Minor, son of Thomas, were selected by the Court of Commissioners to be educated for teachers of the gospel to the Indians. Both young men, however, ultimately left their studies and devoted themselves to other pursuits. He commanded one of the companies that was raised to participate in King Philip's War, and was present at the Narragansett swamp fight. 19 Dec 1675. Subsequently, he and Capt. George Denison, with their companies, successfully pursued and overpowered the remnants of King Philip's tribe, and brought the war to a close. His homestead farm in Stonington, which descended to him from his father, was on the east bank of the Mystic River,adjoining lands of John Gallup on the north and George Denison on the south and east. It has never passed out of the possession of the family.

Notes for HANNAH THOMPSON:
The Stanton Genealogy by Wm A. Stanton has been proven to have made a mistake in claiming that the wife of John Stanton b 1641, son of Thomas and Ann (Lord) Stanton was the Hannah Thompson was the daughter of Rev. William Thompson of Braintree, MA (pg 135).
Clarence Almon Torrey of MA, member of the NYGB Society gives good proof of this error.
Antony Thompson of New haven, CT, by his second wife Catherine, had a daughter Hannah who was baptized 8 June 1645 (Records of the First Church, New haven). William Thompson, brother of Anthony, in his will 6 Oct 1682, mentions Anthony's daughter"Ann Staunton", who was evidently, the daughter baptized as Hannah (Savage's Genealogical Dictionary, V IV, pg 289. The other Anns or Hannahs who married Stantons at an early date have been identified. John Stanton was the only Stanton that Hannah Thompson, dau/ Anthony could have married...probably in 1664.

Children of JOHN STANTON and HANNAH THOMPSON are:
i. JOHN[3] STANTON, b. 22 May 1665, Preston, CT, on land given to him by Father; m. MARY ???.
10. ii. JOSEPH STANTON, b. 22 Jan 1667/68; d. 1751.

v. THEOPHILUS STANTON, b. 16 Jun 1676; m. ELIZABETH ROGERS.
vi. DOROTHY STANTON, b. 1680; d. 28 Apr 1699.

4. JOSEPH[2] STANTON (THOMAS[1]) (Source: Newspaper Obit & personal knowledge re-Lonnie Trexler, Jr..) was born 1646 in Hartford, CT (Source: 'New England'?????, 2143, 2144 , Book lists lineages for many of the old New England families. Good write up on Thomas Stanton and most of his children.), and died 1714. He married (1) ?????. He married (2) ???PRENTICE. He married (3) HANNAH MEAD 19 Jun 1673, daughter of WILLIAM MEAD. Notes for JOSEPH STANTON:
For son of Thomas and Anna Lord Stanton....Joseph, it says" Moved to Stonington w/parents and settled on large tract of land which his father had purchased from a Narragansett sachem for a half bushel of wampum. Joseph had helped redeem the schem's child from captivity and the land was part payument for this. It was situated in what is now Charlestown, R.I. formerly part of Westerly and the lease was dfated 20 Nov 1685. In 1669, Joseph was app't assit maagistrate from Stonington to hold court at New London with his father, who was MagistrateIn May 1714, Ben Uncas and 54 other Mohegans signed a paper declaring that Owenico had sold the land unlawfully, in the western part and they consigned what was left to Joseph Stanton and four others. He was m three or four times, records are hazey.

Vivian (why is your name sound familiar to me? Maybe we have corresponded before)

Interesting story of yours. My Woodard line starts with Calvin and his spouse Maria. I found their names in the list of baptisms from Lutheran St Pauls ch, Minden, Montgomery, NY. Their children were Henry, b. 25 Dec, 1810 in Galway, b. Jan 13, 1813 This Calvin was my g-g-grandfather. I know Calvin jr [illegible] as a youngster living with [illegible] Column of Richfield, [illegible] by 1835, and single. He m in 1840 to Mary B. Smith, about 1817 in Ontario Co., NY. He had the Mayble line in his background. I have a letter to the effect that his g grandmother was a Mayble/Mabee/what ever. I can't believe I can't find anything about Calvin Sr. He would have been b.around 1785, give or take some years either way. I HOPE this helps!!!

Chuck

Interesting story of yours. My Woodard line starts with Calvin and his spouse Maria. I found their names in the list of baptisms from Luthean St Pauls ch, Minden, Montgomery, NY. But that's aall I know. Their sons were Henry, b, 25 Dec, 1810 an Calvin, b. Jan 13, 1813 This Calvin was my g-g-grandfather. I know Calvin jr spent quite some time as a youngster living with Hamilton Colman of Richfield Springs, NY. He was in Michigan by 1838, and single.He m in 1840 to Mary B. Smith . about 1817 in Ontario Co., NY. He had the Maybie line in his bacground. I have a letter to the effect that his g grandmother was a Maybie?Mabee/what ever. I can't believe I can't find anything about Calvin Sr. He would have been b.around 1785, give or take some years either way. I HOPE this helps!!!

You would think with all this info that I could find something on her but the obvious sources, census, wills, etc. give nothing concrete. Family story is: she was orphaned young, was sent to live with cousins who 'treated her like a servant'. She had two brothers called "Ham" and "Jade". Does any of this help or connect with your Woodard?? Vivian Jordan

Dear Cousin Clara, I received your letter, and the genealogy you so kindly sent, and would have written to thank you before, had I not been studying for an examination. I am so proud and appreciate the record which cost you so much time and research. Indeed, had I never known much that is in it, I would have hesitated to ask you. Papa was so interested in the facts of his mother's family! Aunt Mary, who married

Jule is an invalid, and Aunt Ermine never goes to visit any one except her daughter Annie in Griffin Ga. You must excuse Aunt Jule for not having written you a little letter. Her health is so poor that we rarely hear from her and then only a few lines. Clare is a very bright child, with her mothers Auburn hair.
You said you did not know whom the daughter of my aunt mother married. Aunt Ermine married Captain Malone of Jones of an old friend and associate judge of my grand father. He was Judge Pierson. Did you know the Stocktons of Quincy? Their Stockton is also at school in Washington.

Miss. Abed, my teacher asked which society you belonged to in Brooklyn. She was a Phi Delphian I think she said. It was between periods that we were talking, and it was very hushed.

We expect to move to Portsmouth Va, in January, so perhaps I will meet you sometimes. and thanking you sincerely for your kindness in finding the genealogy I ask Sincerely Yours

Ruby de G. DuPont

Mrs. Joseph Lines lives in town with her daughter Mrs. Harrison. She will visit us next week before she goes to spend Christmas with her son. It is hard to realize that she is a great-grandmother. Her granddaughter, Katie Lines had a child six years old. Papa wrote to Aunt Julia and Aunt Emma, begging them to come to see us, but neither could. It would have been so pleasant for papa to have had them with him. It has been many years since the family has been together as a whole. Uncle Joseph is dead now, Aunt complaining[2] for a week or more but not confined to his room. I do not know what uncle wrote you as I was at Memphis for several years about that time. He was quite an active man for one of his age.

I went out to his home and spent the night with him in in Oct. 1909. before he died in during the Holidays. He was the youngest child of my Grand father Jas. D. ~~of~~ & five & sons & one daughter who now lives in Texas with her daughter. My great grand father came here with his three sons. following my Grand f. who had preceded them. I think not more than one or two years.

I have always understood from the family 3 that this Great G.f. was a Rev. Soldier but he cannot I presume be the man you spoke of in your letter to Uncle.

They are more nearly related to Bowling Green Dinwiddies who came from Va. to Ky. with the Carsons and Helms.
My niece for several years has boarded with Dr. Helms family, (now of Bowling Green,) and taught music. Dr. Helms daughter will be here next week, will change cars here for Martin Genn. where her brother is teaching. We are expecting her to call on us.
Our Carson relatives here are the oldest of our people now except my aunt in Texas.
The two Carsons here are son & d. of Cousin Wm Carson, who married my fathers Cousin, daughter of his Uncle Wm Dinwiddie, she died the Cons Wm & married hers sister Bettie Dinwiddie, mother of this brother & sister.

My Cous in Mrs. Ralston asked me to obtain if possible information in regard to land grants, Rev. Soldiers.
I guess however you have nothing more than you gave of the records of the two Dinwidd Deeds in 1782.
Do you know of any of the name in Dinwiddie County. I suppose not or you would have allended to them.
I am giving you no information whatever, but it was what I wanted to know that prompted me to want your address.

what years did you live in Clarksville? I have heard frequently of the Ete Indian mound Stewart Co. Dinwiddies but never One was a Methodist Minister and I think now lives at Pulaski, Giles Co. Tenn. retired on full pay for life
I did not know the relationship was so close. but as you say we must be of the same stock.
Would be glad if find time to Write me if you have made any progress in gathering the information you desired.
My fathers Cousin Jas. B. Dinwiddie died a few years ago leaving quite a Collection of their Grandsires papers. The family residence was burned two or three years after J. B. D.'s death, and I dont know what if part, if any of the old papers, of Great Grand F were saved Will be up there in a week or two and will try and ascertain.

You asked in your letter to Mrs. Ralston if any of the old Negroes knew what County they came. They questioned one of them very closely and answered very promptly as tho-he knew; that it Campbell Co.
Uncle Press, the last of the old negros died two years ago.
His folks could do very little with him here, so were trying to arrange to send him to the Co.
Poor house. To which he was very much averse. So he ran away and was going thro- the woods, trying to get out to the old Homestead, when he fell over a log and broke his neck.

Mr Baldridge has not yet made his appearance here and we apprehend has stopped at Louisville & Cincinnati and bought his goods and does not intend coming here — We therefore want you to take prompt and effective steps to get the money & security from them — We hope you have been able to secure the debt against Bell as we understand he has sold out his Store — These precarious times we are anxious to have all doubtful debts secured and hope you will take active measures with all our claims in your hands

Yours truly

My dear Madam.

Enclosed you will find a list of the Records Kept here. I am sorry the list is not better, but such as it is I must ask you to return it.

The Library is open every week days from ten o'clock until four-thirty - except Saturdays we close at three o'clock.

There are several ways of reaching here - You can take the Electric cars to Alexandria and drive out - or come by Steam cars to Seminary Station and walk to the Seminary, about one mile and a half. There is a hack on the Southern Road that leaves Washington at eight o'clock I think, and one at eleven thirty; another at four thirty. We live about three quarters of a mile from the Seminary, and if you do not object to the walk, we can accommodate you in December, but not after January. Miss Ball boarded with us at the rate of one dollar per day. This included her dinner at the Seminary as I dine there, and I am sure the same arrangement could be made for you.

If you decide to come, you had better let me know a day or two in advance, and I can get some one to meet you in Alexandria, or at Seminary Station. For less than you can hire a carriage from a livery stable.

If there is anything else you would like to know, I will be pleased to give you any information.

You may desire.

Yours Sincerely.

My dear Miss de Saussure.

Your letter was sent to me from Savannah and I have just received and hasten to answer it. The best-informed man on the descendants of Gov. Blake is Langdon Cheves Esq. of Charleston, a relation of the Blakes. I am sorry I can tell you nothing of the Va Blakes or Bakers or any more of the Blakes of S.C. There appears to have been two families of the name in So Ca Chas of Edward of whom see book and Chas of Gen. Jos. Blake of whom see note in same Belinger book. Jean name I know quite well as in the Gist Collections of So Ca

the name of the baron de Graffenried can be found & Jean

sure that either Mr Chreves or Mr H. A.
De Saussure can enlighten you as to what the Carson marriage. The family of Jos. Blake of So Ca was very eminent.
Perhaps your descent
from the Blakes of S.C.
& the Bohun Bakers.
There are some records
in Columbia, So Ca.
recently obtained I believe. I have a relation formerly Miss Susan Blake

who I think has a relative by your name. Her daughter
Elizabeth Lee Strickland
(Mrs. Tyler) has recently married a man of means a Mr
Shepherd of Shepherdstown
Va any sister is there now. Have you any records of Lewis of Va or any one in North Carolina you could refer me to?
I am sorry I can add so little to satisfy you. Are you really not of descent to Barones de Haffenreffer or are these make heirs. Very truly yours
J. H. Buchanan

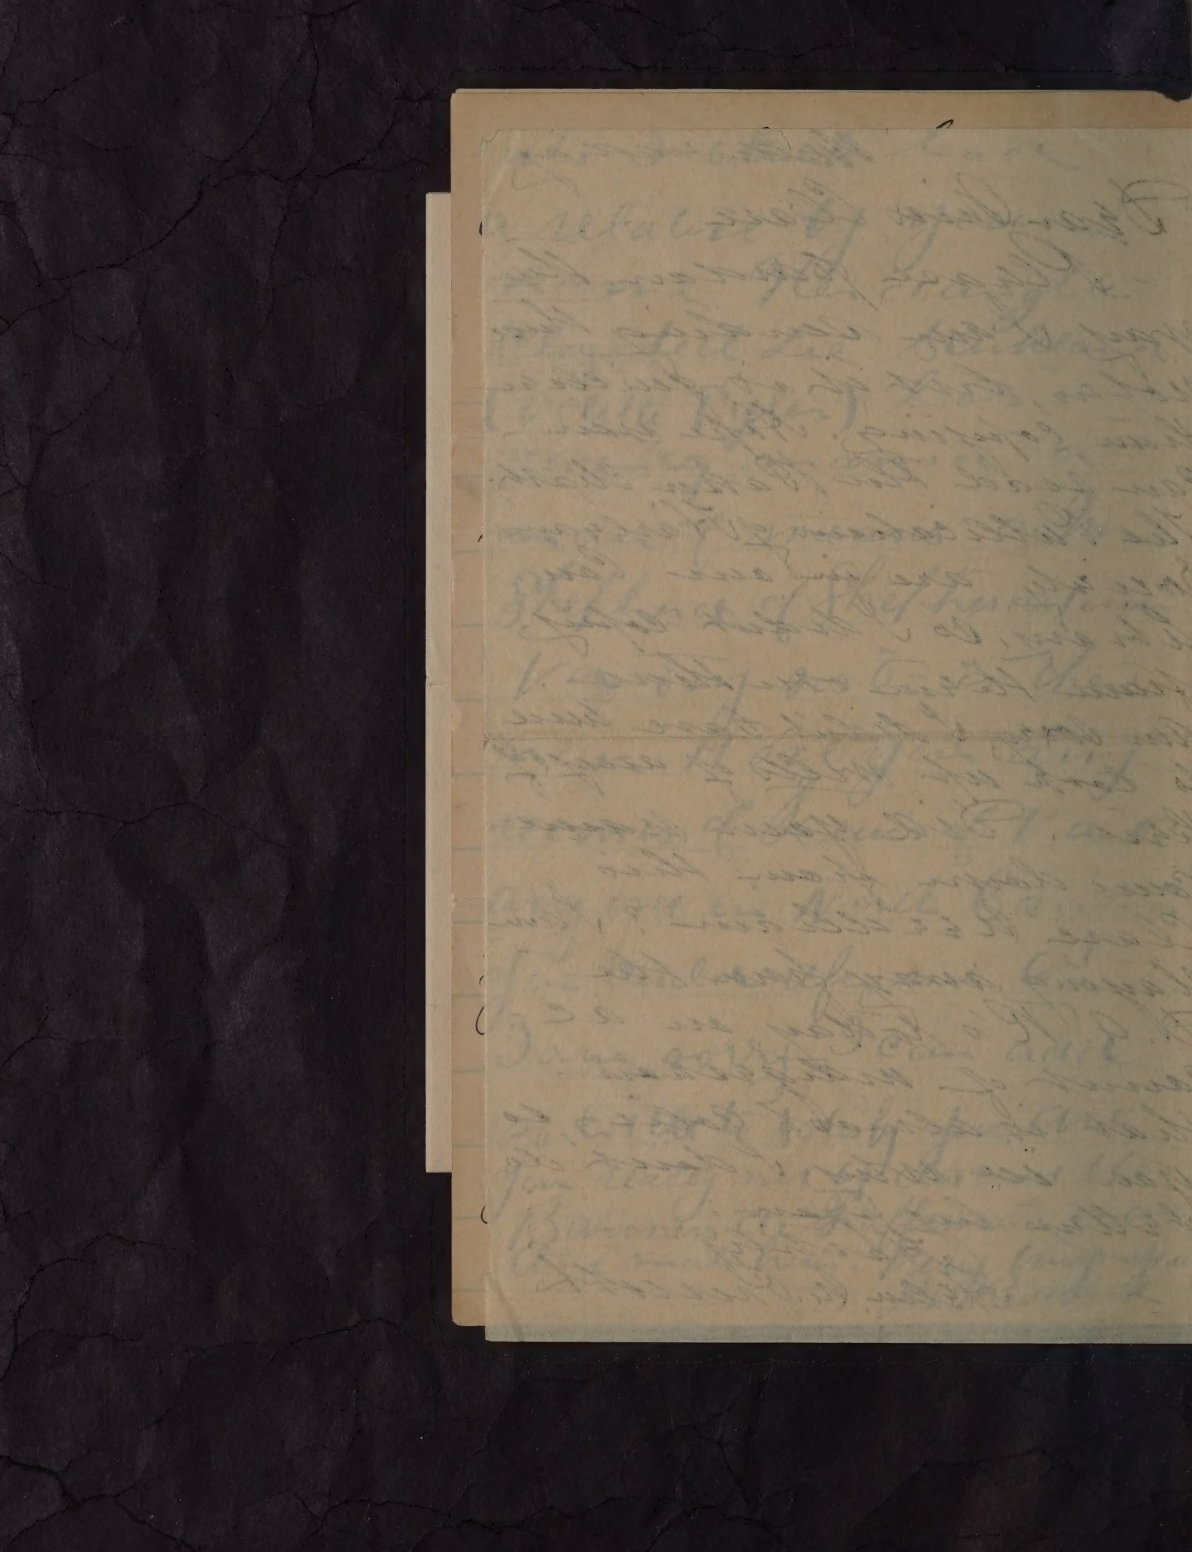
Dear Miss Clare -

Please pardon the way I am sending these notes, but it is quicker than copying. Hope you can read the Baker chart. The Publications of Harlem Society are in our Ref. Library, so I didn't copy from them over there. Am sorry I didn't have time to look up wills of any of them. Did your name come down from this "Clare Needham"? I am staying away from the D. A. R.'s today, on account of indigestion that is almost colic, so you see why I don't do better by you.

Yours truly
Helen A. Prescott



Dear Nancy,

I like the cigarettes very much, but we had better wait a few more days before we do it again, because it might bring [illegible] our health.

Love to boy sister Nancy.
